

Christmas Greetings
To You

34.1

There's always a wish in my heart for you And wishes, you know sometimes come true.

I wish you peace, and joy and love,
The gifts that come from God above.

You will wish I had used my typewriter when you try to read this!!

My dear Mrs. Kasmith; -

I got your very charming little note & followed your very good advice. Roy's book is certainly helpful to a beginner and one of the best I've ever seen. In show was a decided success.

The people were quite thrilled; of course I wasn't satisfied by my playing, by any means but it makes you feel better to think that it was very much enjoyed by all who saw it.

I just wanted to wish you and Colonel Harbison a very Merry Christmas & a happy New Year.

Yours very Sincerely
H. Scott Brewster.
